PRESENTED BY THE ANNUAL STAFF OF

CHARLES D. OWEN HIGH SCHOOL

SWANNANOA, NORTH CAROLINA

VOLUME XI

Foreword

Time is something all people have and spend, yet never own, see, or really understand. It is an intangible concept; a simple progression of events which, once lost, can never be regained. Time comprises the past, present, and future. It is infinite but can easily be divided into measurable segments.

Our recollections of these small segments of time are our closest link to the past; they are our memories.

Even though time will progress and leave the past far behind, the memories of our years at Owen will form a timeless memorial to some of the best years of our lives.

We are always complaining that our days are few, and acting as though there would be no end to them.

Years At Owen . . .

A Time

For Everything

Dedicated . . .

In appreciation of his time and talents as band and chorus director, and his unselfish concern for the welfare of our school itself, the Senior Class gratefully dedicates the 1968 Warhorse to our assistant principal, Mr. Richard Hipps.

The three really great things in the world are a mountain, the ocean, and an earnest man at his work. The potentialities of each are beyoud human calculation.

–E. W. Bok

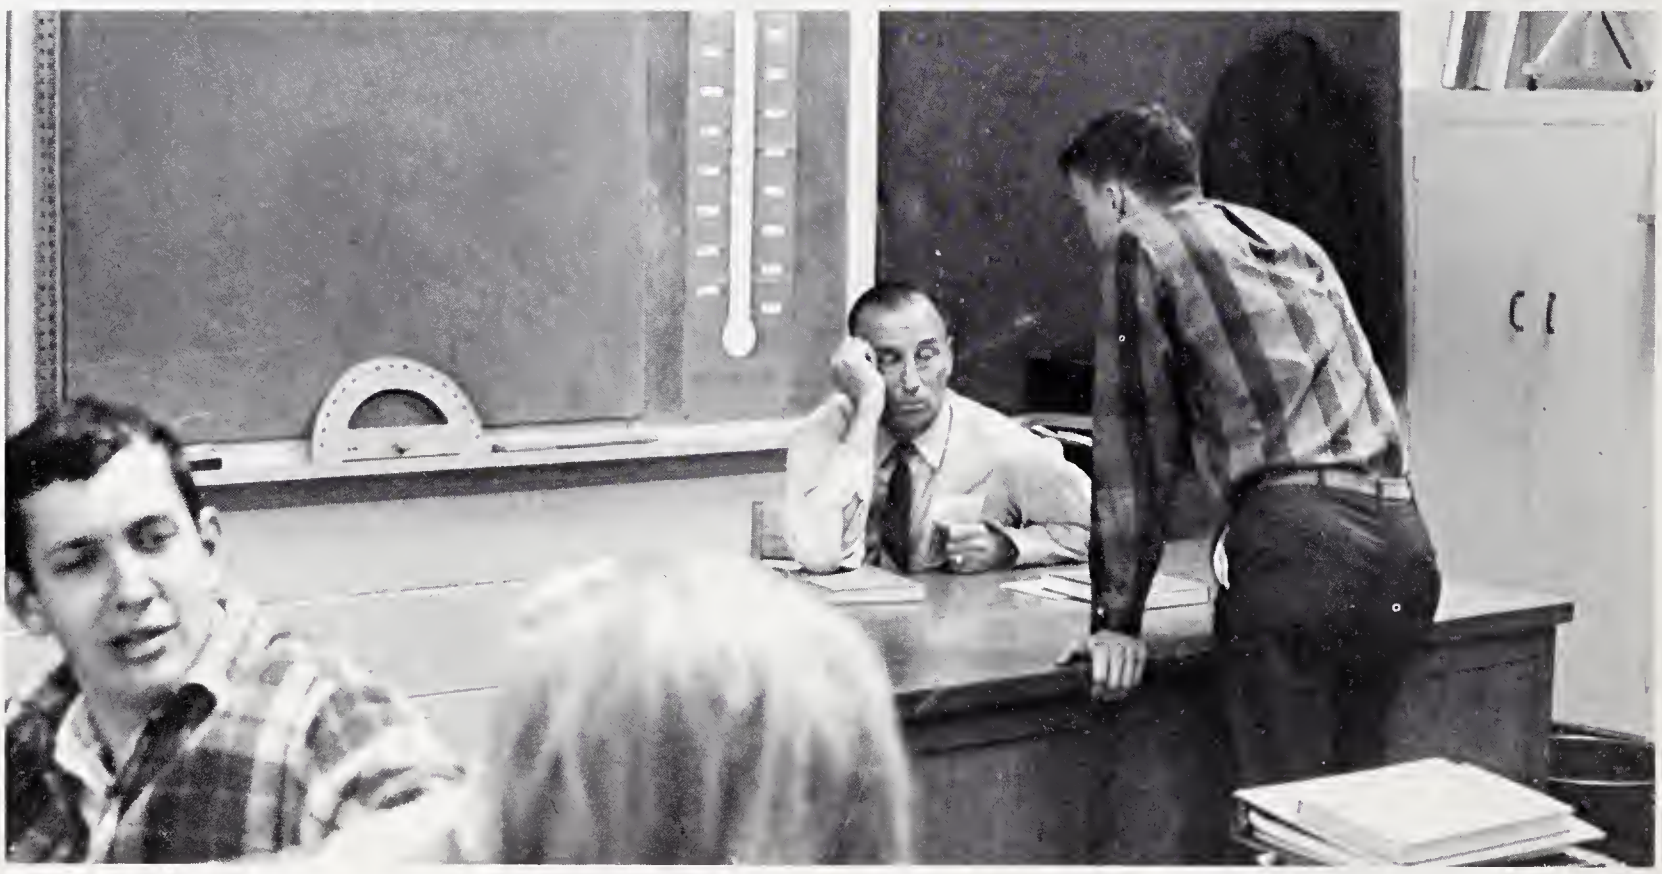
Academics

Students Are

Geometric proofs require exacting work.

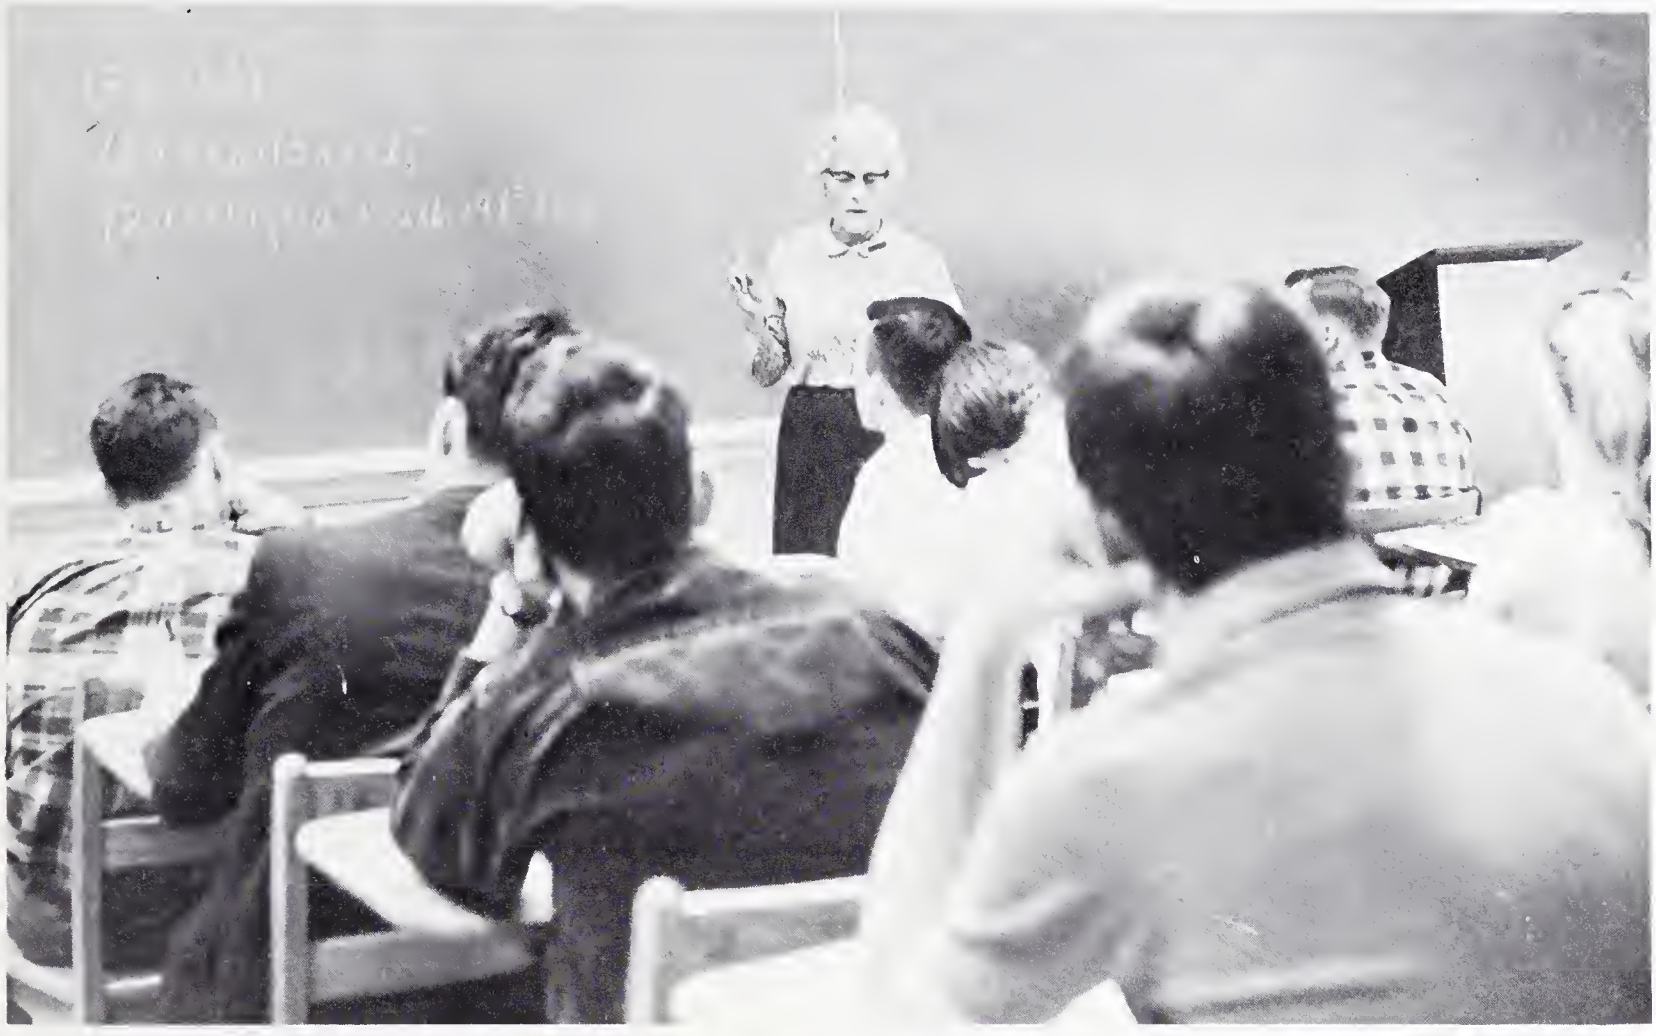
The fascinating world of mathematics came alive for many students as they grasped new concepts in Algebra, Geometry, or Advanced Math.

Owen offers a math curriculum to fit the needs of every student. Commercial students, anxious to enter the business world, are offered a practical program of Business Math, while college bound students follow preparatory courses in Algebra, Geometry, and Advanced Math. These more advanced courses develop a firm basis for the students who plan to go on to college.



Many individual problems are explained in the last five minutes of a period.

Offered A Broad Mathematics Program



Careful explanation of procedure is the first step in any math course.

The Science Department Progresses

Physics involves much math work; a slide rule can cut computation time to almost nothing.

Work must equal force x distance!

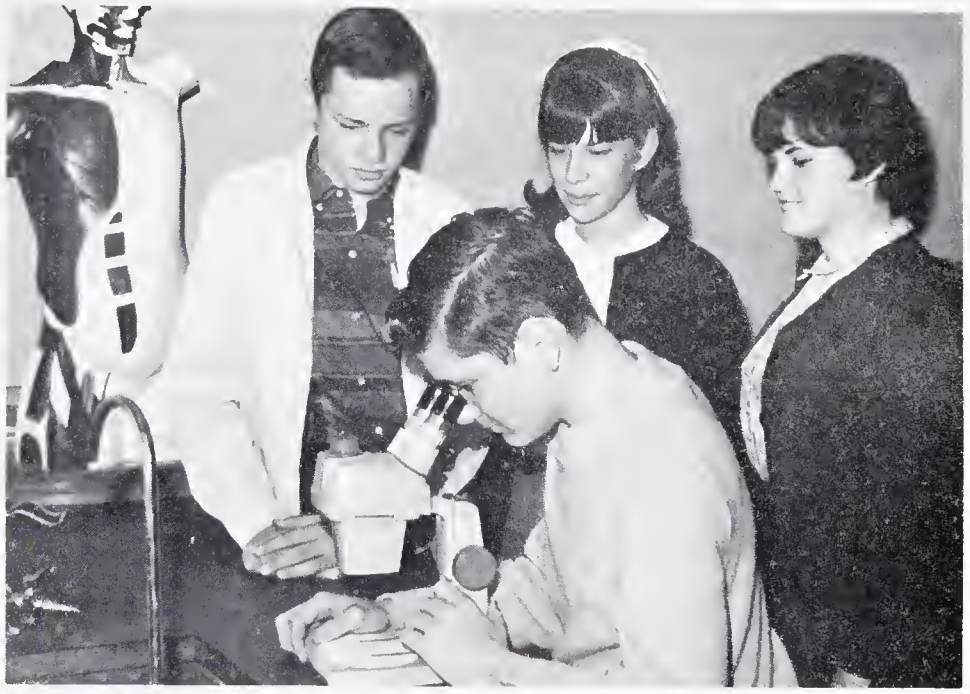
Determining specific gravity

To Introduce PSSC Physics

Tremendous amounts of interest are generated whenever a student opens one of the doors of science.

Through Physical Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Physics, students gain an understanding of many of the technical complexities of life. From the simple amoeba to the study of intricate body functions, the anatomy of life is viewed by sophomore Biology students.

Chemistry students become interested mainly in the "how" and "why" of nonliving things. Physics students begin the study of the relationships of heat, light, and force as they affect our everyday life.



Orderly procedure usually leads to a successful experiment.

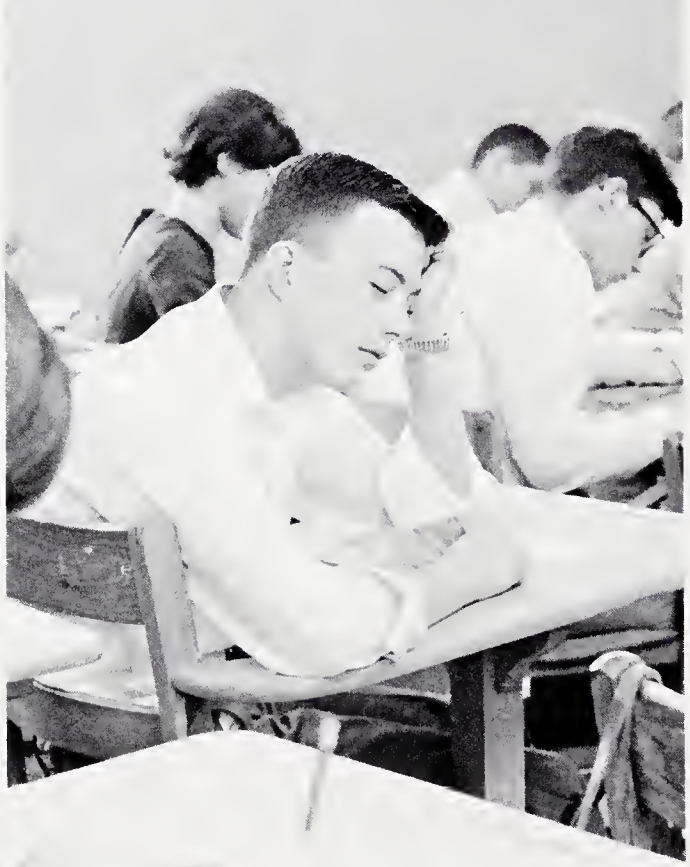
The Mastery and Mystery of Foreign Languages

Latin composition?

Freight train to Paris

And while Rome burned . . .

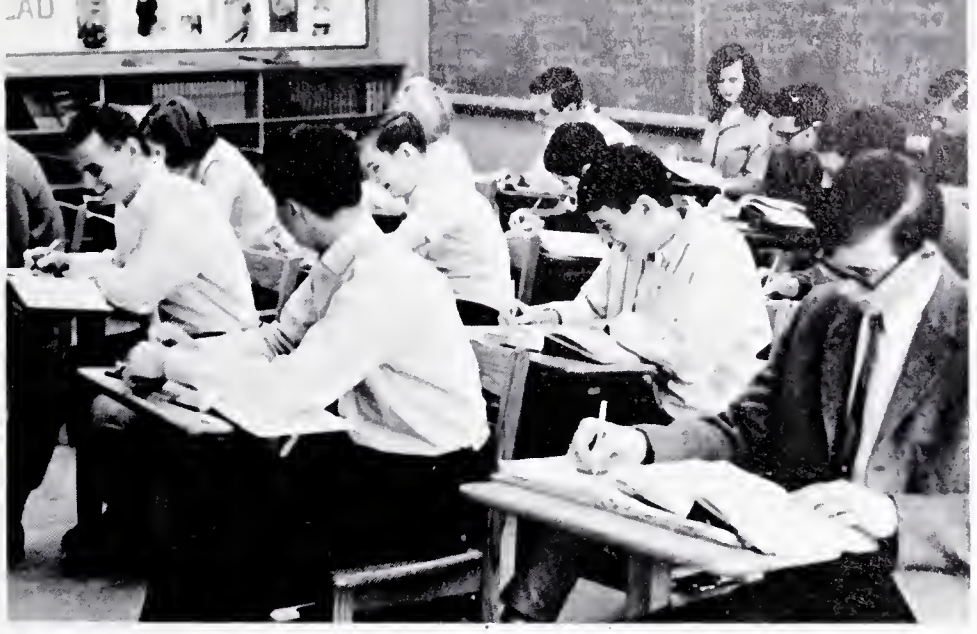


Often a greater appreciation of English can be aroused from study of foreign languages.

The two year courses in French and Latin offered at Owen not only give the student a working knowledge of the language itself, but also introduce him to the culture and customs of other countries.

There's a certain amount of uncertainty in everything.

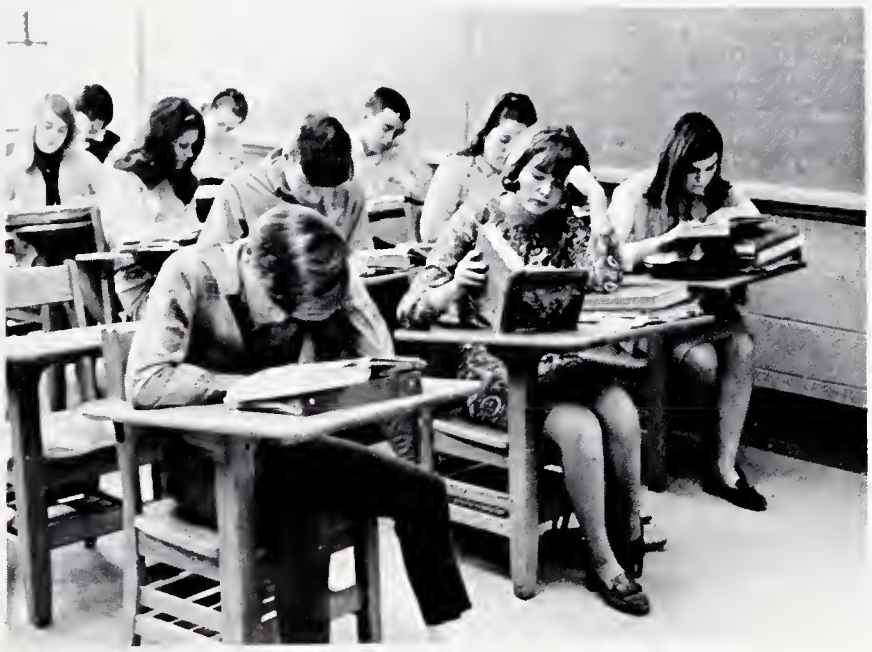
"Repent!"



"This senior English is really fun!"

Faster, more accurate reading and concentrated studies of composition and literature were primary goals for this year's English classes. While some students were battling with parts of speech, sentence structure, and vocabulary, others were delving into the study of novels, plays, poetry, essays, and other literature.

Study in reading, writing, listening, and speaking was found to be the key to effective communication while developing keen insight in every student.



Intrigue!

"Man, Shakespeare must have been a real swinger!"

Goals in Sight, Future Homemakers and

Today's Home Economics students will be the homemakers of the next generation. They must be able to sew, cook, care for children, and handle home finances. Proof of their proficiency often floats through the Home Ec. doors as aromas of baking pies and cooking meals.

"But the button won't even work without a hole."

Which way to cut . . .

I'm going to use a green one!

Mechanics Develop Essential Skills

Just a "planed" old board.

Agriculture students gave Owen a new attraction this year with the completion of a greenhouse for horticultural studies.

Agriculture students study everything from farm machinery to wood working, but prepare mainly for vocations related to agriculture.

Craftsmanship gained through experience.

Pride of O.H.S.

Chef and maitre d'hotel.

The Varied Subjects of Social Studies

No, I'm not putting you on!

"Let's try to talk him out of the test."

I can spin right through World Geography.

Offer Something of Interest to All

The study of the world, its people, and their problems in past as well as in present times, ranks Social Studies among Owen's most interesting and meaningful courses.

Students provided with a good background in Social Studies are more prepared to understand and cope with the problems and responsibilities of later life. They know the basic principles on which our government was founded and are able to evaluate our economic and democratic systems by comparison to the systems of other nations.

"... and that's how I think the world should be run."

The more you learn, the less you know.

Preparation for Future Business Jobs . . .

"If I were you . . ."

Business would seem to be undergoing a trend toward automation, but aside from the clacking typewriters and whirring adding and mimeograph machines many students get rigorous training in shorthand, bookkeeping, and general business. Owen's commercial students are well prepared to enter the business world, although many find their acquired skills invaluable in school and college work.

Oops! I forgot the ink!

Dictation–Transcription, all we ever hear!

Well, it does say Kxyltzyos!

Hey! who kicked the hole in my drum!

Under the direction of Mr. Hipps, Owen's band and chorus members have gained an excellent and working knowledge of music.

They learn everything from the basic fundamentals to the final polishes of perfection, and, most important, are given the opportunity to demonstrate their ability as musicians before audiences at football games, assemblies, and concerts.

Let's hear it now sopranos!

Healthier Bodies Through P.E.

Shotgun LeVine strikes again.

Knowing that a curious mind cannot function properly without a sound body, Owen's coaches strive to teach teamwork and sportsmanship while developing physical strength, endurance, and co-ordination. Along with physical training, freshmen receive basics in classroom health education.

D.E. Conveys Important Business Training

Education Wholesale!

Students anxious to get into business immediately after graduation find Distributive Education to be an excellent preparatory course.

In striving to promote business knowledge and skill, D.E. includes training in wholesale, retail, and service distribution.

Students Unravel the Operation of Gears

Few people care to wait until they are eighteen before being allowed to drive a car. Driver Education, with its thirty hours of classroom training, and six hours of behind the wheel experience, makes it possible to obtain a driver's license at sixteen. Lowering of the minimum age is more than offset by the improvement in a driver's ability and attitude as a result of this special training.

Nerves of steel!

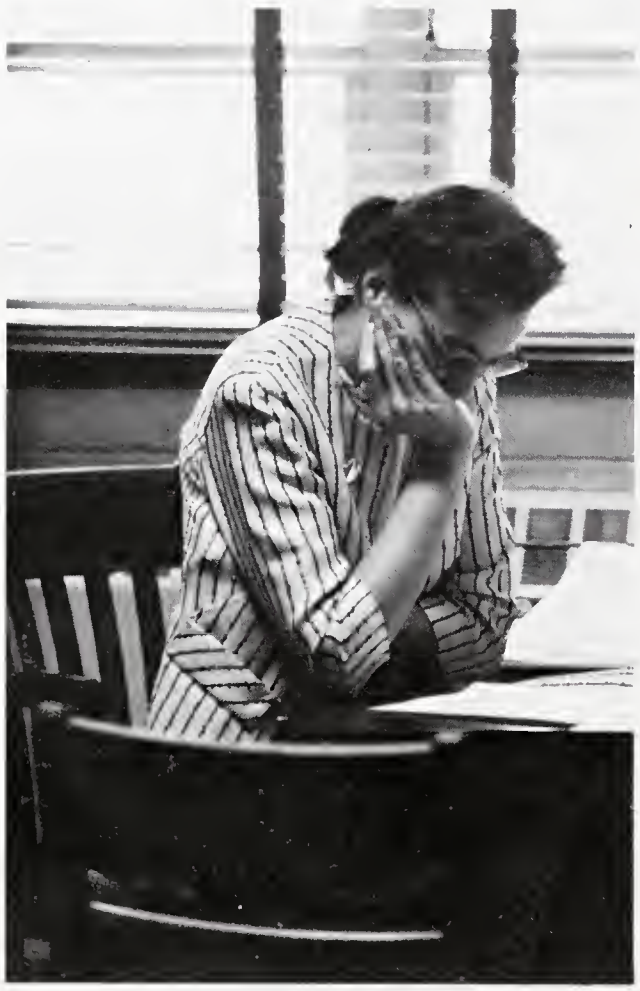
Younger but safer drivers is North Carolina's goal.

L.S. Students Keep Orderly Shelves

Check-out and check-in are the most common procedures.

Running an efficient library, and keeping books in proper order, is a big job for library assistants. Under the watchful eye of Mrs. Carr, students learn procedures for checking, shelving, and cataloging books on many various yet specific subjects.

All books are cataloged and shelved in specific order.



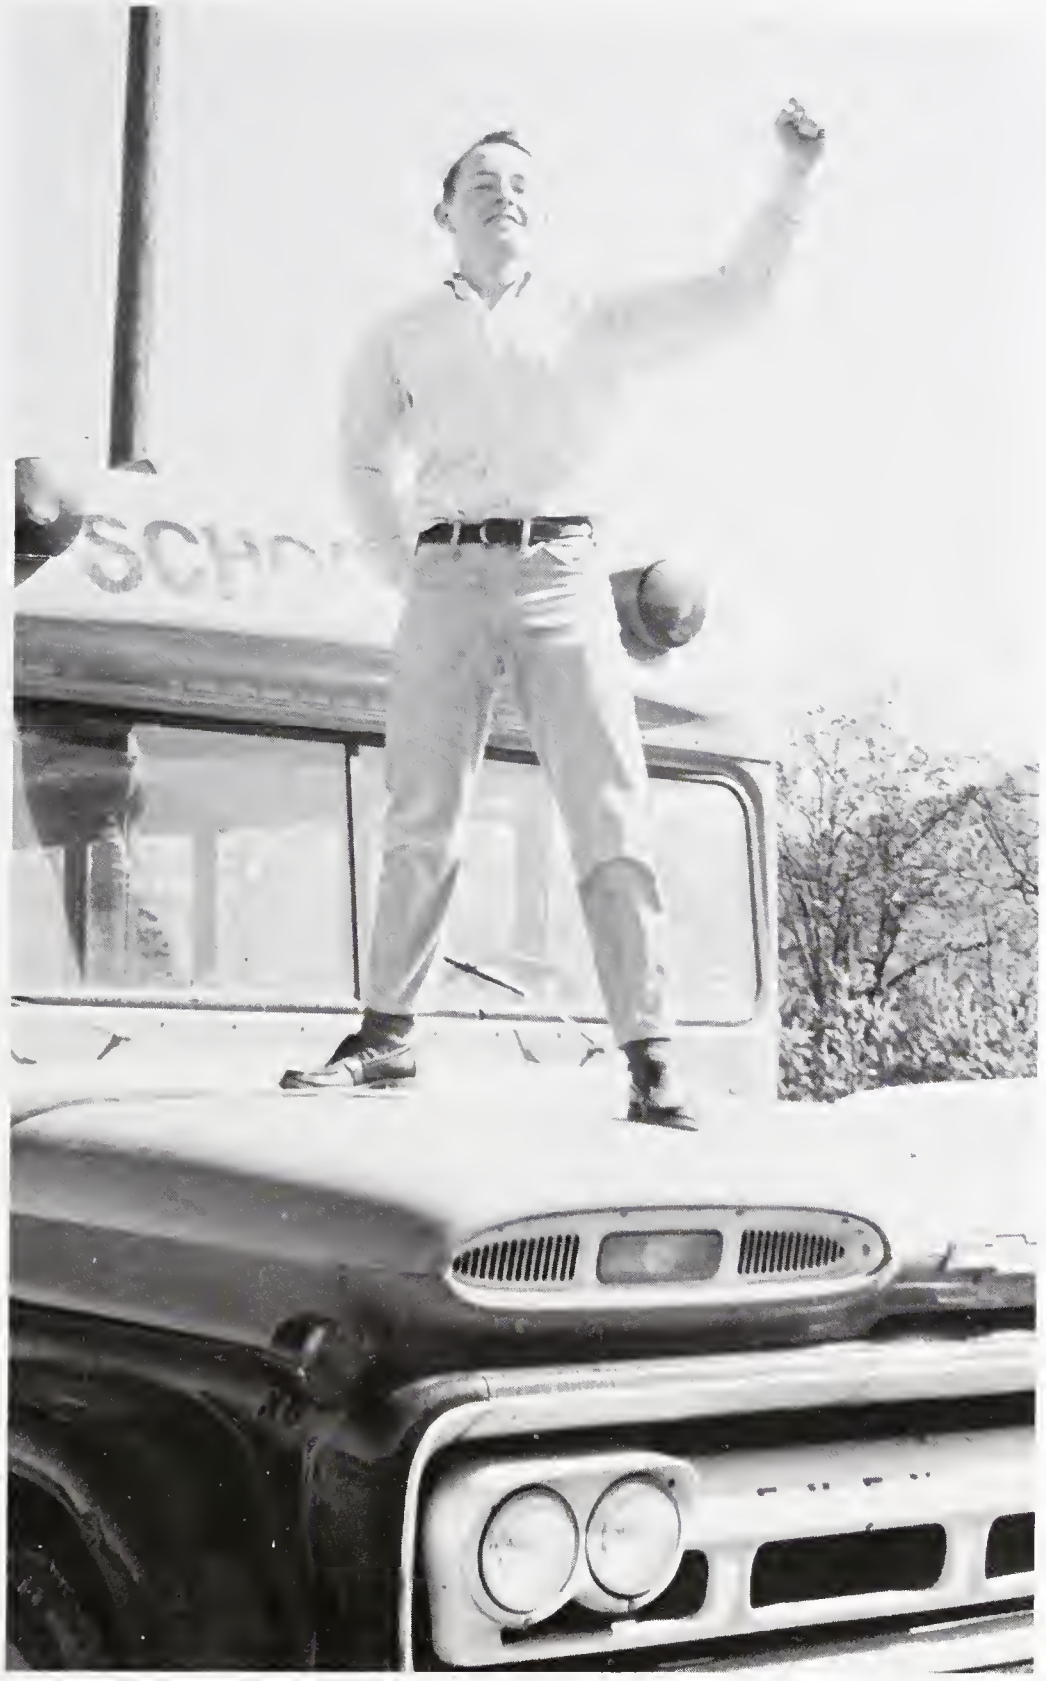
Student problems are counselor problems.

As busy as the guidance office is, it would seem that Owen is a school full of very uncertain students, but considering the confusion over class scheduling, tests, scholarships, and college entrance exams, we see the importance of our guidance counselors.

Miss Hanlon and Mrs. Conger are always ready to give answers and advise to the many varied questions of students.

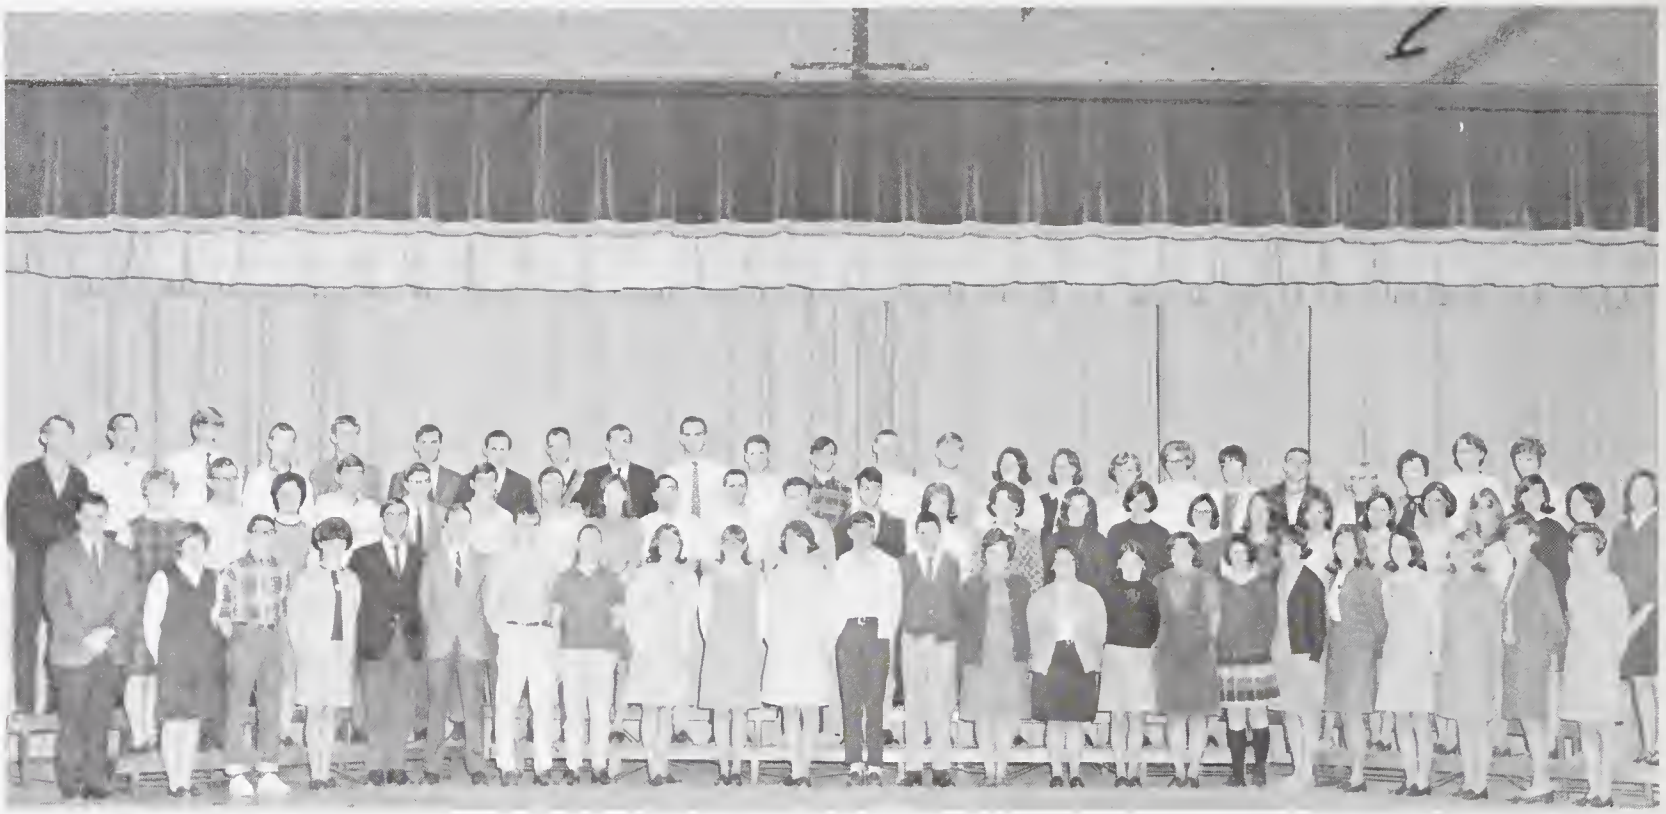
Line of doubt.

The Never-Ending Questions



Organizations

A Time For Fellowship . . .



Jerry, Patty, and Keith are busy working on posters for the District Beta Club meeting.

Beta Club

By participation in civic activities, it is hoped that Beta members of today will become active and useful citizens of tomorrow.

Our club was well represented at the District Beta Meeting, and several of our members ran for election.

Steve Gladwin was elected district president for 1968.

Song Leader; Scotty Uzzell.

Pianist; Cheryl Melton.

F.C.A.

This year our organization of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes became a member of the national organization.

Each Friday morning the club has a period of devotion. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

OFFICERS: Sitting, Sandra Buckner, Secretary; Bruce Harris, Treasurer. Standing, Perry Hensley, Vice-President; Lester Ballard, President.

D.E.C.A.

The students in the Distributive Education Club participate in a work program in cooperation with local industries. Each student attends school for a part of the day and then goes to work at a local job. This work-study plan proves helpful because each student gets experience in this field of work before graduating from school.

Jim helps the DECA club by operating the school store.

Alexander Ripley was the winner in the Job Interview contest in W.N.C.

OFFICERS: Neil Gilchrist, Parliamentarian; Larry Pressley, President; Danny Givens, Treasurer; Tom McCool, Secretary; Tom Jones, Vice President; Jim Hall, Historian.

OFFICERS: Pat Warren, Reporter; Libby Moser, Secretary; Ronnie Sneed, Vice-President; Teresa Melton, County President; Linda Roberson, Treasurer; Debbie McMeans, President.

F.T.A.

The members of the Future Teachers of America are given an opportunity, through the activities of the club, to learn about the teaching profession. Some of these activities were attending the convention at Raleigh, helping a needy family at Christmas, and having guest speakers at monthly meetings.

Several members are helping Santa by wrapping gifts for a needy family.

Debbie McMeans, President, gained experience by being in charge while Miss Wrenn was away on school business.

Bill teaches methods of developing pictures in the lab.

Photo Club

Throughout the year photo club members take pictures at football and basketball games and at various other school activities. In their pictures they strive to capture the true spirit of Owen High School. They share their pictures with the students through the annual, The Black Mountain News, and bulletin boards.

OFFICERS: Bill Clements, President; Ray Cockrell, Vice-President; Ronnie Sneed, Secretary; Jim Stephenson, Treasurer.

FBLA

FBLA OFFICERS: Carolyn Burrell, President; Judy Plemmons, Vice President; Brenda Roberts, Secretary; Rhonda Bartlette, Treasurer.

The goal of the Owen Future Business Leaders of America Club is to create interest in business fields and to develop leadership qualities in those students who plan to enter the business world. Members learn correct business techniques by assisting teachers in the typing and duplicating of study materials. The highlights of the year are a service project, several field trips, and a trip to the North Carolina State Convention.

Carousels Club

Members of the Carousels Club participate in a series of one act plays presented to the student body during the school year. These plays vary from serious dramas to humorous comedies.

Each spring, the Carousels Club takes great pride in presenting its annual spring play to the invited public.

Exacting costuming and make-up . . .

Library Assistants

Keeping a library in running order is a tremendous job. Helping Mrs. Carr do this are a number of qualified student Library Assistants. These students check books in and out, shelve books, file cards in the card catalogue, and mend books.

FFA

A recap of the FFA's accomplishments this year shows that they have done more jobs than any other club. They painted the bleachers in the gym and on the football field, built the greenhouse, and painted the flagpole. They placed first in both public speaking and parliamentary procedure in district meets. This year, they have achieved many of their goals.

Volunteers and Health Careers Club

For two hours each week, these volunteer workers go to local hospitals to give their assistance to the nurses. Some of their duties include talking to the patients, feeding them, and writing letters for those who are not able to do it for themselves. This act shows the true interest these students have in helping others.

Members of the Health Careers Club are interested in various fields of medicine. They broaden their knowledge by the different films and books presented at the meetings. Occasionally, a professional in a specific field will speak at the meetings. Tours of hospitals and clinics highlighted the activities of this year.

FHA

The Future Homemakers of America Club prepares its members for their future lives in the home. The members of the club enjoy meeting with other girls at their county and state conventions and sharing ideas. Teas and refreshments, which the girls have planned and prepared themselves, are occasionally given to the faculty at meetings.

French Club

The French Club was organized to give French students a better opportunity to become fluent in speaking the language and to learn French customs in an atmosphere of informality. This year, knowledge of French gained in the classroom has been utilized in skits, games, and quizzes, all presented in French.

Off to the Convention at Chapel Hill!

JCL

The aim of the Junior Classical League is to create interest in the Roman culture and the civilization that forms the basis for much of modern society. One of the highlights of the year is the Roman Banquet during which the Latin costumes are displayed.

The club annually has good representation at the national convention and the state convention at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Last summer, the Owen chapter received national recognition in costume design. Owen students have held three state offices in the last five years.

Officers of the J.C.L. are: Georgena Millar, Historian, Sheila Cody, Quaestor; Virginia Taylor, Censor; Steve Gladwin, Consul; and Hayden Clark, Aedile.

Chess Club

The Chess Club, organized only last year, is making its first mark in the school. Its original purpose was to provide organized, regular meetings for those people who played chess and needed practice to improve their game. The club now also exists to introduce the game to newcomers and to teach proper techniques to all members.

Speech Club

The newest club at Owen is the Speech Club which was only organized this year. At the weekly meetings, members are given the chance to express their views on contemporary subjects in both planned and extemporaneous speeches. If interest increases, the Owen Speech Club may form the basis for a chapter of the National Forensic League.

Guidance Representatives

These students who work closely with Miss Hanlon render a valuable service to our student body. They distribute college materials, educational pamphlets, answer innumerable questions, and handle various other items vital to the work of the guidance office and the students.

Each year, the boys of the basketball teams choose seven girls to represent them on the Basketball Homecoming Court. This year the court consisted of Carol Rozzell, Sandra Buckner, Linda Stokes, Terry Wright, Teresa Turner, Sara Andrews, and Beth Rice. The identity of the Queen was kept secret until the court was presented at the half-time ceremonies of the Owen-East Henderson game. The secret was revealed as team captain Lester Ballard crowned Miss Linda Stokes as Queen of the 1968 Basketball Homecoming Court.

Champs—Four Years in a Row!

The Warlassies celebrate another victory.

Owen jumps for the rebound.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Owen Warlassies have completed another undefeated season. This year, the Warlassies won all twenty of their regular season games and finished off the campaign by winning their fourth straight Buncombe County Tournament. The girls now possess an 87 game winning steak. The Warlassies also proved themselves to be superior in sportsmanship and were commended for sportsmanship in the tournament.

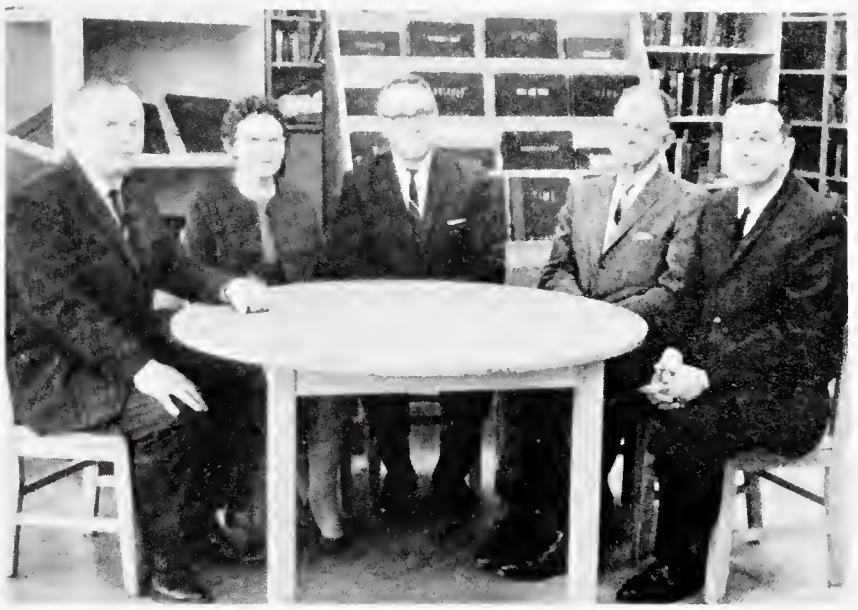
Mr. T. C. Roberson
County Superintendent



The school committee, L. to R.: J. Herbert Coman, vice-chairman; Mrs. Grover Ledbetter; Gordon Greenwood, chairman; Harry M. Noblett; and John A. Klutz, secretary.

Mr. N. C. Shuford, first principal of Owen High School, served from 1955 to 1960. He was instrumental in bringing about the consolidation of the Black Mountain and Swannanoa High Schools.

Between the years of 1960 and 1966, Mr. Fred H. Martin served as principal of Owen High School. Much of his time and talents were spent in obtaining our membership in the Southern Association of Secondary Schools.

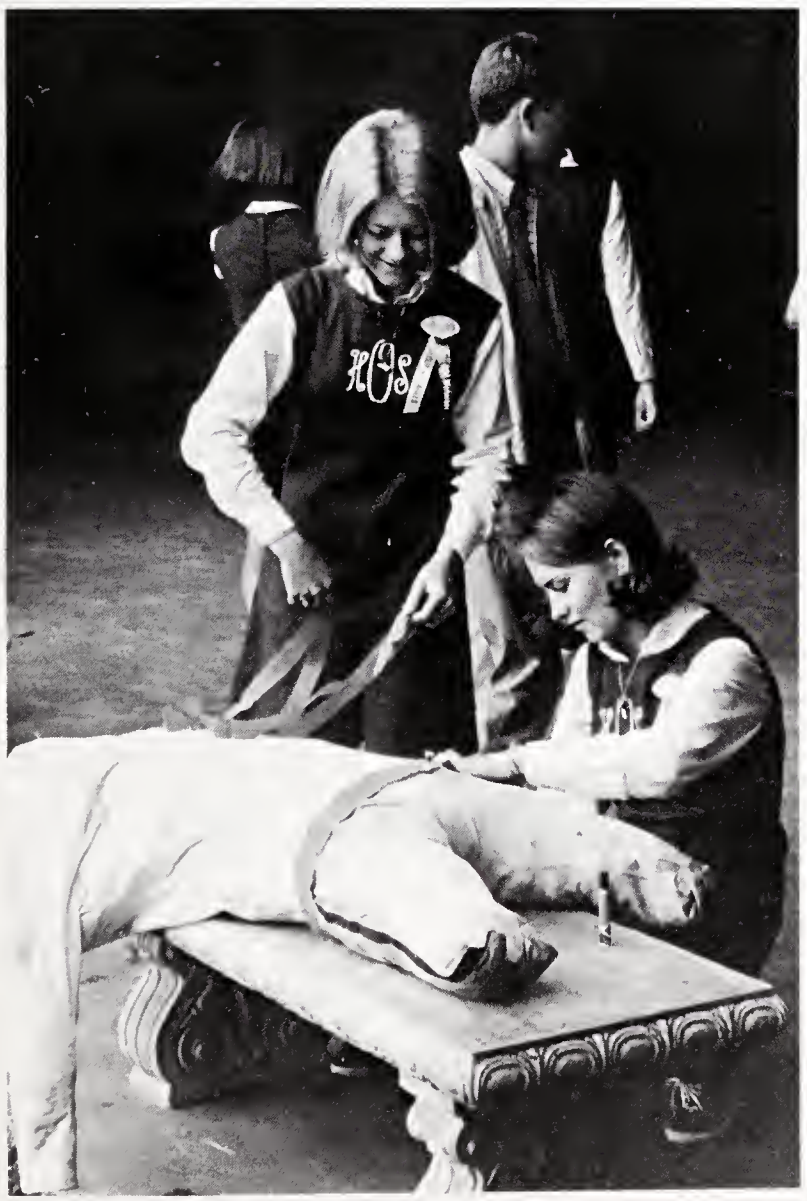
A Time For . . .



We lived
With hearts that ran
"And hands that dreamed . . ."

And clocks that had no hands.

Another year has passed, but its events will never be forgotten. They have been recorded in the memories of every student who has been at Owen.

As veteran seniors step down, uninitiated freshmen arrive. We, who are leaving, will remember Owen as it was, but for those who arrive, Owen must change to accommodate new strengths and weaknesses.

A school's character is that of its students – its people. Over a period of years people change, their interests vary, they set new and higher goals, and they find time for additional activities.

Owen has changed in the past – it will undoubtedly change in the future. Opportunities will come, go, and return, and years at Owen will continue to offer a time for everything.
